WEATHER PROBABILITIES - For this section warm and generally fair tought and Wednesday; light south to southwest winds.

THERATENED HIS FATHER. - A warof Jeseph Martin, who was charged with firing a revolver in the street and threatening to shoot his father, James Martin, who conducts a store at corner of Alfred and Queen streets. Martin is nineteen years of age, and is in the Marine Corps, being stationed at Washington. Yesterday afternoon he came to this city with a companion and about 8 o'clock proceeded to his father's store and fired a revolver into the place. Young Martin went to the house and told his father that he wanted to get a medal which had been awarded to him at school several years ago. His father told him that he was in no condition, at the time, to get the medal he being under the influence of liquor, and if he would return when he was sober he could get it. Martin be-came incensed at this, and threatened to shoot his father. Subsequently he fired the revolver at the house. For some time young Martin has been at an industrial school near Beltimore, and he recently left that its itution and joined the Marine Corps. This was his first visit to this city for several years. The young man eluded the police and his arrest was not effected.

THE HUMID WAVE still holds its own, and at present no relief is in sight. The temperature yesterday was enervating, although the mercury in the thermometer only reached the ninety mark; but the intense humidity rendered conditions very d'sagreeable and people experienced more fag than on occasions when the mercury was moving toward the century mark and the atmosphere wer dryer. Although the heavens were clear last night the con-ditions were uncertain, the wind holding to the souther it. Between three and four o'clock this morning there was a heavy downpour of rain, and the day was ushered in under threatening conditions with the same warm, sticky air which for the past forty-eight hours has rendered man and beast uncomfortable. There is little prospect for decided. as there is a ly high temperature south of this section which is busily engaged in sending warm winds in this direction. The weather men say it may be a week or more before the prevailing conditions disappear.

A DESERVED PROMOTION .- Acting Secretary Sanger, of the War department, has appointed Mr. Phineas J. Dempsey of this city, to be chief clerk of the office of the chief of engineers to fill the vacancy caused by the recent death of Chief Clerk William J. Warren. Born in Alexandria, the new chief clerk has been connected with the office of the chief of engineers in a olines of the chief of engineers in a clerical capacity for the past thirty-four years. He was appointed a temporary clerk in that office November 1, 1867, and was promoted a clerk of class 3, September 1, 1870. In July, 1874, he was action promoted. Mr. Dampasey has renewed to the control of the control of the class of the control of again promoted, Mr. Dempsey has rendered valuable service to the govern-ment, and his appointment to the office of chief clerk was based entirely on his faithful and efficient record. His promotion was recommended by General Gillespie, chief of engineers, and Colonel Macketzie, his principal assistant. His appointment will result in a number of promotions in the office.

A GENEROUS INVITATION .- Mr. J. R. Chapman, a former prosperous resident of this city, but who about eighteen months since engaged in farming near Ekton, Md., in a note to this office saye:

Inclosed find check for subscription to the dear old Gazette for another year. I always welcome its coming and read with pleasure every line, advertisements and al! It to me is like a letter from home, telling me of the many improvements made, being made and contemplated in the town. I am so glad that you have commenced in extrest the street improvement. This certainly is a styp in the right direction, and will undoubtedly lead to grand results. I am in a beautiful taming country, half way between Baltimore and Philadelphia, on the B. & O. A LOUD-MOUTHED CALF .- Residents of upper King street had an uncomfortable experience about three o'clock this morning caused by a calf belonging to Mr. M. Shuler which had broken loose and seemed bent on rendering early morning naps impossible. The animal started from Queen street and bleated terribly to King, when it stood first in front of one house and then another until the inmates were thoroughly aroused. People appeared at windows with as scant attire as though about to escape from a hotel fire, some armed with bootjacks or anything in the way of a projectile that happened to be handy. The police finally heard the calf and came to the rescue. The animal, finding it was to be pursued, showed its fleetness by outrunning the officers, and every time they came within grabbing distance the tender bovine gave a plaintive bleat and led its pursuers. Officer Davis succeeded eventually in getting a handhold on its tail and by a twist or two brought it to a stand still. Every one by this time was awake and the heavy rain which set in about the time kept most of the neighborhood awake until daybreak.

COURT MARTIAL,-A court martial COURT MARTIAL.—A court martial was held in the armory of the Alexandria Light Infantry this morning to hear charges preferred against Private Joseph Ewald, who is charged by Capt. James E. King, of that company, with insubordination and abusive language toward him. The court was composed the Martin Smith of Alexandria. Capt of Major Smith, of Alexandria; Capt. Cheatwood, of Richmond; Capt. Pay-Chestwood, of Richmond; Capt. Psy-ton, of Charlottesville; Capt. Shackel-ford, of Richmond; Capt. Bosseaux, of Richmond; Lieut. Booker, of Rich-mond; Lieut. King, of Alexandria, and Lieut. White, Judge Advocate, of Charlottesville. After completing the case the court forwarded the findings to Governor Tyler, and they will not be made known until executive action is taken. After the adjournment of the court the members were entertained at the residence of Capt. King, and later took the steamer Samuel J. Pentz for River View where the excursion of the Alexandria Light Infantry is being held.

A. L. I. Excursion.-The excursion of the Alexandria Light Infantry to River View today was a successful af-fair notwithstanding the dubious state of the weather. There were drills at the grounds in the afternoon, and the successful contestant was awarded a handsome gold medal. The following were the members of the reception committee: Mojor W. M. Smith, Capts.

James E. King and Ashby Miller, and
of people who were unable to go during the day will avail themselves of the op portunity of enjoying a ride to River View at 7:15 this evening.

SUCCESSFUL OPERATION .- It is said that the operation performed on Mr. Edmund Hunter, of this city, at the St. Luke's Hospital, Richmond, for an injured leg, by Dr. Stuart McGuire, of that city, will prove successful. Sev-eral years ago Mr. Hunter was injured in a game of football, and since that time he has been compelled to use crutches. By the operation he expects to regain the use of the limb entirely. After leaving the hospital Mr. Hunter will go to Winchester and from thence he will proceed to Capon Springs, re-turning to Alexandria in September.

THE MANASSAS NORMAL .- The Manarsas summer normal school is increas ing. A gathering of the county super-intendents of northern Virginia is to be held on Fridsy, July 19. It is expected that Prof. McGilvray, editor of the ed that Prof. McCrivray, editor of the Virginia School Journal, will be present. On Thursday night, July 18, Prof John T. Freeman, of Washington, will lecture on "Manual Training in the Public Schools." A spelling contest and an elocutionary contest are to take place during next week. Gold medals are offered to the winners.

EXPLOSION OF A GASOLINE STOVE .-A gasoline stove at the residence of Mr. George A. Nowland, on south Fair-fax street, exploded this morning, and for a time grave results were appre-hended. Mr. F. L. Eatwisle, who lives opposite, hastened to the scene with a fire extinguisher and soon prevented what might have proven a serious conflagration. He was ably assisted by Mr. Charles Hepburn. Fortunately no one in the house was burned by the ac-cident. No slarm were sounded.

WANDERING MINSTRELS .- Two boys, aged each about twelve years, are eking out a precarious existence in this city by singing wherever they can get an audience. They often appear in bar-rooms where they exercise their powers in hopes of gathering in nickels. They were in a down-town saloon this morning seated in chairs and expanding their lungs to the utmost in efforts to attract attention. The boys are unattract attention. The boys are un-kempt and bear evidences of neglect, and their innocency and want of at-tention are more calculated to inspire sympathy than the music they imagine they discourse.

RETURNED HOME. -Samuel Bender, the colored boy of this city, who had been picked up at Union Station, Baltimore, a day or two ago, was delivered to his sister who returned him to his home. Bender's grandmother had given him a $5 bill and sent him to a nearby grocery store to purchase a 10-cent can of baked beans. He bought the beans, and instead of going home he spent some of the money for a rail-road ticket and went to Baltimore, taking the bears with him. He stil had about $3 of the money and said he intended going to New York.
